Summer Fayre 14th June – Early Close

Reminder

The school will be closing early on Friday 14th June, at 2pm. The teachers will not be responsible for children after this as they will be running stalls!

Please ensure you return your form telling us what arrangements you would like from 2pm, to ensure that we can safeguard every pupil and have a fantastic afternoon!

With regards to Year 5 & 6 children if permission to walk home has been given, and we don't receive contrary information these pupils will be released at 2pm to walk home.

PLEASE NOTE – the back gate will be open from 3pm for Callis parents but not before – please enter the Fayre via the front gates (for safeguarding reasons).

Mrs Cole's Jurassic Coast Challenge

Mrs Cole in 6I is undertaking the huge challenge of walking 100 kilometres of coastline from Poole to Bridport this weekend! Lots of training has gone into this, plus her walking partner has had to pull out, so she needs our support!!

She had hoped this would take her under 28 hours, but it may be a bit longer due to the forecast winds! You can see maps of the walk, track her progress or sponsor her via the website <https://www.jurassiccoastchallenge.com/the-challenge>

Bib no. 2099

Mrs Cole is walking for Alzheimer's UK.
