St. Peter's Dance and Drama Academy News

Last Saturday, St. Peter's Dance and Drama Academy opened its doors for the first time. After preparing for a chaotic start, checking contact details and signing registration forms, we were pleased to have experienced a smooth commencement to the term. The children's excited faces were enough to tell us that opening was worthwhile. It was great to see some ex-pupils return for the Academy! Street dance and Drama started at 9:00am and were full of eager children, ready to dance and perform. Musical Theatre and Lyrical/Contemporary began at 10:15 and, again, was a big success, with lots of happy children spilling what they had done today to their parents collecting them.

This Thursday, we were delighted to have the very talented Ashton Sharp back for a workshop with our elite dancers. He will be working with them over the course of a few workshops on part of their next competition. We loved having him back and look forward to working with him more in our dance journey.

Watch this space for exciting Academy news!
