Thank You.

I would like to once again thank parents for being so sensible and vigilant in making sure that children do not come to school if they are feeling unwell – everyone is really doing their bit to keep our whole school safe. Cough, temperature and loss of taste or smell are the classic symptoms but also our experience has shown that for children it is just as likely to be tiredness, headache and stomach ache. Please do have your children tested if they or close family members have these signs. We do have children and staff off school and isolating at the moment but I am glad to say that our numbers are manageable and all our classes are in school and enjoying their learning. I seem to be describing new isolation guidelines every time I write to you! So from Monday the isolation period changes again. So, the day your or your child's symptoms begin or you test positive is counted as day zero and the first full day of isolation is counted as day one. On day 5 you can take an LFT test and if it is negative you take another test 24 hours later on day 6. If it is still negative and there is no high temperature then the isolation period ends straightaway and you can go to work and children can come back to school.

Platinum Jubilee

This year the Queen will become the first monarch to have led the country for 70 years and I am really pleased to say that all school children across the country are being given an extra day's holiday to mark the Queen's Platinum Jubilee. At St Peter's this will be on Friday May 27th. We have chosen this day as it is the closest school day before the additional Jubilee Bank Holiday and the actual celebrations that will be taking place all over the country. It is also very conveniently next to our half term break giving families a chance to have a slightly longer holiday together – with the added bonus for many of our families that this day is already an Inset Day at Callis Grange.

Mr. T Whitehouse.
